

BAPTIST AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST

“WE ARE AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST.” II COR. 5:20

Dear Pastor & friends:

March, 2023

We thought Spring was in the air, but last week saw snowflakes as we looked out our apartment window. So we will not turn down the thermostat yet nor put away our overcoats and gloves. In Spain they say “don’t put away your coat until the 40th of May”! (No te quites el sayo hasta el 40 de Mayo”). And they are right.

S We want to thank all those who have prayed for our son-in-law Jack and his diagnosis of prostate cancer. He is on a special diet and a “wait and see” approach right now with new analysis every few weeks. He and Joy have a heavy load ahead of them with the 5 weeks of summer camps coming up in July and August so we ask you to please continue to pray.

N We have lost one of our care-givers that had been with us almost three years. He was offered a different full-time job so had to be replaced. We sincerely believe that God led us to a man who is not saved yet but highly recommended by one of the national pastors. He has a car and is able to help with the grocery buying as well as taking Lavon to physical therapy, doctor’s appointments etc. Besides that, he can cook! He has lived in Spain for 16 years, originally from Perú. And he is going with us to church every Sunday. God does all things well so no doubt this was included in God’s plan right now for us as well as for him. His name is Miflin.

Things are going well at church with visitors nearly every Sunday. This past week we renewed our annual faith-promise for missions. Our church now supports 7 different projects at 100 euros per month. We initiated the faith-promise plan from the very beginning of this work. Yes, faith-promise works on the mission field too. As far as we can remember, we have never missed one month in sending the support that we have promised by faith.

Easter week begins the first week of April and as usual the choir is hard at work on the special music. There will be a cantata plus a Gospel message with an invitation for salvation. We are praying for new visitors and for God to use the music as well as the preaching of God’s word to convict of sin and see souls saved. Thank you for participating with us in both prayer and faithful offerings.
